Are you looking for an exceptional executive education experience that will reignite your mind?

A program where innovation and entrepreneurship are the presiding principles? Then come to the source.

There’s only one: Stanford.
Why Stanford Graduate School of Business?

RENOVATED FACULTY AND RESEARCH
Stanford Graduate School of Business (GSB) faculty includes 3 Nobel laureates, 5 recipients of the John Bates Clark Medal in Economics, 4 members of the National Academy of Sciences, and 19 members of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. Stanford GSB faculty members lead each executive program and are deeply engaged with the participants. Research centers have been established to study current topics. For more information, please visit centers.stanfordexeced.com.

RESEARCH-BASED LEARNING MODEL
Research-based management frameworks provide the foundation for all Stanford GSB Executive Education programs. Study groups, interactive simulations, real-world business challenges, guest speakers, and case discussions reinforce the practical applications of these frameworks.

WORLDWIDE RECOGNITION AND ALUMNI BASE
With a global reputation for excellence, Stanford Graduate School of Business Executive Education programs have attracted close to 57,000 senior executives from more than 18,000 companies, creating a vast network of alumni from around the world.

GLOBALLY DIVERSE, SENIOR-LEVEL PARTICIPANTS
Faculty directors review all applicants to ensure a global mix of experienced participants for each program. Program demographics are carefully balanced, with approximately half of all participants coming from outside North America.
A COLLABORATIVE LEARNING COMMUNITY
The Knight Management Center, with 360,000 square feet in 8 buildings and 50% of its 12.5-acre site preserved for open space, consolidates the facilities of Stanford Graduate School of Business into a vibrant and unified indoor/outdoor, living/learning community. The Knight Management Center is Platinum-certified by the U.S. Green Building Council’s Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design (LEED) program, and features tiered classrooms with extensive floor-to-ceiling glass, the latest in audiovisual technology, and numerous breakout and study rooms.

GSB RESIDENCES
The residences are situated directly across the street from the Knight Management Center and are comprised of two buildings—Schwab Residential Center and Jack McDonald Hall. Residences offer fully furnished individual rooms and services including a business center, exercise room, dry cleaning, and daily housekeeping.

You will also be treated daily to the award-winning cuisine of Executive Chef Raul Lacara and the friendly and efficient service of the Schwab Executive Dining staff. Ranking #1 in the Financial Times Open Enrollment Survey for Food and Accommodation, Schwab Executive Dining’s on-premises kitchen under Chef Lacara’s leadership consistently receives high praise for its culinary excellence.

Custom Executive Programs
Stanford Graduate School of Business collaborates with select organizations to design and deliver custom executive programs that address an organization’s specific business challenges. To ensure maximum impact and relevance, these custom programs involve close cooperation between an organization’s executive leaders and Stanford faculty. Programs include a combination of highly interactive classroom sessions, case discussions, small group exercises, electronically mediated tools, and intensive study groups to encourage participants to think strategically and effectively manage change in their organizations. More information is available at custom.stanfordexeced.com.
“Stanford has been a game-changer for me. It has reinforced some things I already know and has given me a much better view into myself. It has also challenged me to think about things differently going forward. The program has not only given me a better perspective on what I can do to become a better leader, but also what I can do to make a bigger difference in the world.”

Jacqueline Hinman | Former President, CEO, and Chairwoman of the Board | CH2M Hill
